

ONLINE CONFERENCE: PREPARING LEARNERS WITH SEND FOR ADULTHOOD

Book your FREE place now:
www.wholeschoolsend.org.uk

Date: Thursday 6 March, 9.30am-12.30pm

Book your FREE place now:
www.wholeschoolsend.org.uk

AGENDA

Time	Session	Workshop Choices
09.30 - 09.40	Welcome and Opening Remarks	Alison Betts, National Coordinator, Whole School SEND
09.40 - 10.10	Values in Action	Molly Heery, a young adult with Williams Syndrome, and her father Paul, CEO of the White Hills Park Trust in Nottinghamshire, share their lived experience.
10.10 - 10.35	Workshops (Breakout Rooms): Focused Discussions	Choice 1: Matt McArthur – Catalyst for Change: Early Years and Primary Choice 2: Matt Silver – The New Value of Education: The Future of our Learners (suitable for Secondary and FE leaders and practitioners)
10.35 - 10.45	Break	–
10.45 - 11.10	Workshops (Breakout Rooms): Focused Discussions	Choice 1: Kelly Dillon – Effective Transitions: Considering Every Phase of Education (All phases) Choice 2: Alice McColl – Developing Independence and Community Participation – Evidence of What Works and Young People’s Top Tips for Schools and Colleges (All phases)
11.10 - 11.20	Youth Voice: A Representative’s Perspective	The Voice of Our Young People – Personal experiences shared of positive outcomes and challenges faced during the transition to adulthood.
11.20 - 11.30	Break	–
11.30 - 11.55	Workshops (Breakout Rooms): Focused Discussions	Choice 1: Sam Mayhew – Removing the Velcro Support: Preparing Learners for Adulthood within a College Setting Choice 2: Clare Belli – Case Study: Developing PfA Across a Trust
11.55 - 12.10	Q&A Session	Amanda Wright, Head of Whole School SEND
12.10 - 12.20	Closing Remarks and Next Steps	Alison Betts, National Coordinator, Whole School SEND